

NOTICE
TOWN OF DUXBURY PLANNING COMMISSION
PUBLIC HEARING on draft Town Plan
February 27, 2020
6:30 pm
Town Garage Meeting Room

The Duxbury Planning Commission will hold a public hearing to receive input from the citizens of Duxbury and adjoining towns on the draft updated town plan. The last town plan expired in October 2019. The town plan covers the entire town of Duxbury and proposes no changes in land uses in the land use districts that currently are in place. The plan covers: an updated community profile; housing; natural resources, including forest resources and forested blocks per the requirements of Act 171; flood resiliency; economic development; food and agriculture; transportation; education; community utilities, facilities, and services; energy; and future land use. Maps of: natural features and water resources; transportation; housing distribution; education, utilities and facilities; forest blocks and wildlife crossings; and future land use are attachments to the plan. Town history and wildlife information are included in appendices. Written comments will be accepted until 4:30pm on February 28, 2020.

The full text with accompanying maps will be available at the Duxbury Town Clerk's office and on the town website:
